Immigrant Children and Youth (ICY) Program

Our team serves unaccompanied children who are placed into Immigration Court proceedings without the right to a free attorney. We provide Know Your Rights (KYR) presentations, legal consultations, social services and direct legal representation to detained and released immigrant children and youth in the Galveston-Houston area. Many of these services are conducted through a universal representation model, meaning we assist clients in navigating the complexities of the immigration process without regard to the strength of their case. We offer a full range of holistic services from fighting their deportation in court to securing permanent legal status in the United States and just about everything in between.

*602 kids received KYR & consultations, * 169 kids represented, * 155 kids connected to social services

Detained Adults Program

We represent detained immigrants in the four Houston-area immigrant detention facilities. Our cases range from seeking release to reunite with their families to representing asylum seekers and complex litigation. Our team participates in the first-ever public-private partnership with Harris County to represent low-income Houstonians regardless of the merits of their case. This universal representation operates as a public defender model, where we are assigned to represent individuals on a first come first serve basis, regardless of the strength of the case. Additionally, we represent detained adults who are found incompetent to proceed in immigration court without an attorney.
